

Dear Friends,

I wish you health, peace, and some bright moments of joy in this challenging time.

The East Harlem School at Exodus House has been a pillar of strength and serenity for low-income families in Spanish Harlem since 1993. We are committed to supporting our school community, including our faculty and staff, during and beyond this period of pandemic. Below, you will find the three immediate steps that we are taking to keep healthy and whole.

- We have waived tuition for all of our students for the duration of the school year.
- We will continue to provide paychecks to our entire faculty and staff — as they continue to work tirelessly for our community — for the duration of the school closure.
- Over the coming months, we will work to provide nonperishable food supplies and emergency grants to EHS families facing unemployment, eviction, and unforeseen medical bills.

In order to make all of the above possible, and to assure our children continue to receive this magical education of the body, spirit, and mind — for all the years ahead — we ask you to please support The East Harlem School Emergency Relief Fund.

Wishing your family serenity and safety.
Love,
Ivan
